"NICELY REWARDED"

Bull's Eye Comedy Featuring

Charles Puffy with Mildred June

* * *

Charles, a polished fat cop, is on his way to call on Mildred, his fiancée, but is bumped into a man hole. When he emerges he is caught on the fender of a speeding car full of bank burglars who are firing at pursuing cops. The car hits a tree and Puffy slips off the wreck with a bank satchel in his hand, not realizing how he got it. The police credit him with the rescue of the bank's money and tell him to come with them to the chief and get his reward.

Mildred, overhearing, thinks him a criminal being arrested, so she breaks the engagement. Puffy becomes a detective and hunts the crooks to get an additional reward of $4,000 for their capture. In the tough neighborhood of the gang of robbers he receives rough treatment, but with the help of Mildred and an automobile device that looks like a line of cops with winchesters peering over a fence he captures the bandits and Mildred.
